Decatur Bar Association Records

Scope and Content: The Decatur Bar Association records were notebooks of presumably one person. There are handwritten notes and minutes, plus more formal typed copies, correspondence, receipts for meeting spaces, expenses materials and resolutions adopted by the association.

Provenance: Provenance unknown: (Accession # FITS.353).

Access: Single photocopies may be made for research purposes. Permission to publish materials from this collection must be requested from the archivist, DeKalb History Center. Citation should be as follows:

Description of specific item; Decatur Bar Association, DeKalb History Center Archives

Processed by Jill Sweetapple, Archivist, 2011.

Size: 2 folders

Organizational History of the Decatur Bar Association: The Decatur Bar Association appears to have begun in the last 1940s and has since evolved into the DeKalb County Bar Association, as lawyers and attorneys from parts of the county other than just Decatur began to join.

Description: The records we have in this collection seem to be records of one member, as they arrived in notebooks. The documents cover approximately 1947-1962 and include meeting minutes, handwritten notes, financial information and correspondence.

Subject Headings: Where possible, Library of Congress Subject Headings have been used.
