Biographical Sketch of Mr. Robert W. Espy IV and Mrs. Bonnie S. Espy: Robert Washington Espy IV is a life-long and fourth generation resident of DeKalb County. He is a member of the DeKalb Association of Realtors, Georgia Association of Realtors and the National Association of Realtors. He serves on the Board of Directors, Executive Committee, and the State and Local Government Affairs Committee for the DAR. He sits on the board of Directors for Simpsonwood Retreat and Conference Center, Pythagoras Lodge 41 Free & Accepted Masons, and the Pythagoras Temple Association. He is also a member of the Ministry Leadership Council for Decatur First United Methodist Church and the Chairman of the Adult Ministry Action Team.

Mrs. Bonnie Sue Bartlett Espy is a life-long resident of DeKalb County. Her family goes back three generations. She is a school teacher at the Coralwood Center of Learning. She began teaching in 2002 after graduating from Brenau University with a degree in Special Education. Later, she acquired her degree in Vision Teaching so she could help teach the blind. She is a member of the Order of the Amaranth-Peachtree Court #2 (the second oldest Court in Georgia). She has held the position of Associate Conductress in this organization. She has also been a member of Decatur First United Methodist Church all of her life.

Annis Westbrook McCorkle (1915-2005) was born in Buford and married James McCorkle. She went to Young Harris College, Georgia State and the University of Georgia. She was a teacher in Gwinnett County and in Braselton and worked in children's education at the Decatur First Baptist church, among other committees.

Description: The Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Espy IV Collection is composed of documents covering many aspects of DeKalb County, compiled over the years. Contributors to this collection are Robert W. Espy IV, Bonnie S. Espy, Robert W. Espy III, Jan McCorkle Espy, Robert W. Espy Jr., Jane Stillwell Espy, James M. McCorkle Sr., and Annis Westbrook McCorkle. There are documents from the First Baptist Church of Decatur, including church committees, members, addresses, responsibilities. The bulk of the documents are finance committee agendas and minutes. Also included are real estate and family papers. Objects include various real estate organization recognition plaques. A 2010 addition to the collection includes issues of the Smoke Signals neighborhood newspaper from 1969 and still publishing. Some of the materials, especially the First Baptist Church and the Lions Club, were clearly collected over years, so donor file names were kept when available, but otherwise are generic and dates are mixed together as they came to the DHC originally.
