After a bout with pneumonia and open heart surgery requiring five and one-half months of hospitalization, during which he was twice given up for dead, Dr. William G. Studer will observe his 59th anniversary as an active Baptist minister on Sunday, Jan. 20, 3 p.m., at East Side Baptist Church, 3600 Snapfinger Road, Lithonia.

Dr. Studer preached for 45 years without missing a Sunday in the pulpit. He has preached in 48 states and 16 foreign countries, authored 10 books, and conducted a weekly radio broadcast for 45 years.

Concurrent with his full-time pastorate, Dr. Studer served as chairman of the mathematics department of Therrel High School in Atlanta. He retired in 1976.

Dr. Don Richards, pastor, Corinth Baptist Church, Stone Mountain, will deliver the anniversary sermon. Mrs. William Studer, Sharon Young, Gene Lambert, Darryl Wade, and James Odum will present the musical program for the occasion.

A number of ministers and former students are expected to be present. The public is invited.
