

The Rev. W.L. Stafford

10/16/89

Free For All Church Honoring Pastor Stafford

DeKalb News/Star

Free For All Baptist Deliverance Church, Candler Road, will celebrate the pastor's, the Rev. W.J. Stafford, 35th Anniversary.

The month of October will be hosted by the various committees of the church. They will fellowship each Sunday with other neighboring churches. Saturday, Oct. 14, the Pastor Aid Committee will host a special "Love Banquet," honoring the Rev. Stafford with a special guest speaker, the Rev. Robert Welch from Sweetwater, Ala.

The Rev. Stafford has served in the DeKalb Community for over 13 years. He has provided shelter for the homeless, has fed the hungry and is a supporter of CARP, Comprehensive Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program. He has "open doors" for other churches to come worship and fellowship. The members of Free For All Baptist Deliverance would like to invite the community to this celebration. For more information telephone the church, 284-1410.