Hispanic Festival In Its Seventh Year

*Sept. 23
1992*

In its seventh year, the Hispanic Festival is becoming an Atlanta tradition.

Scheduled for Oct. 10 and 11 at the Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, 2855 Briarcliff Rd., the Hispanic Festival benefits relief efforts throughout north Georgia.

Last year, nearly 10,000 people from all cultures joined in the fun offered at this colorful event. The Hispanic Festival features shows, folk dances, Latin music and youth theater performances on an open stage. Kiosks are stuffed with delicious foods from 20 Hispanic countries in Latin America and Spain. Truly a family event, the Hispanic Festival features arts and crafts, door prizes, pony rides, and other activities and games for children of all ages.

Coinciding with the celebration of the 500-year anniversary of Christopher Columbus' discovery of America, and the arrival of the Olympic flag from Barcelona, Spain, this year's Hispanic Festival is sure to be a memorable one.

Admission is $2 per person, with no charge for children under 12. Free parking is available at the Target Store on North Druid Hills Road, and free shuttle buses to and from the festival will be provided.

Festival hours are 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 10, and noon to 8 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 11.
