

DeKalb Church

Will Join

Pro-choice Rally

Members and friends of the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Atlanta will join with other pro-choice advocates in a march from Woodruff Park to the state Capitol Nov. 12 to lend their support to the efforts of Georgians for Choice to keep abortion safe and legal. Participants will meet in Woodruff Park carrying the church banner and purple balloons, and proceed to the state Capitol building for a rally beginning at 3 p.m. Senior Minister Dr. Edward Frost is scheduled to be among the religious speakers on the platform at the Capitol.

Since 1963, the Unitarian Universalist Association has taken a stand calling for the reform of abortion laws. In 1987, the association adopted a resolution which states in part: "that UU's actively oppose all legislation, regulation and administrative action, at any level of government, intended undermine or circumvent Roe v. Wade; and, that UU's communicate their opposition to such attempts to their legislative representatives and to the electorate..."
