If possible would you provide a listing of the ministers, pastors, priests or appropriate leaders during the church's history.

Any other interesting historical background:

Organized at Druid Hills High School with 20 people as founding members. The congregation added 22 additional members and began meeting in Medlock School. In February, 1957, a lot was purchased on Balsam Drive where the congregation ^{will} build their church. After 4 years of meeting in schools the first service was held in the new building in September, 1959.
