Size: 3 document boxes.

Biographical Sketch of Peggy Hill Simms: Peggy Hill moved to Georgia from Virginia in the late 1970s and shortly after settling in DeKalb County became involved with the DeKalb Historical Society. She was secretary of DHS from 1979-1980 and president from 1982-1983. During this time the Historical Society was removed from the county budget, a decision for which she was extremely critical of then-Chairman Manuel Maloof. She married Jerry Thompson in 1985.

Description: The Peggy Hill Simms Collection contains administrative documents of the DeKalb Historical Society from the late 1970s until the early 1990s. This includes Board of Directors and Board of Trustees meeting minutes, notes, and agendas; financial records; event planning notes; fundraising strategies; and membership rosters. In addition, the collection contains documents from Decatur Federal Loan, Decatur Women's Club, DeKalb Convention and Visitor's Bureau, DeKalb Council for the Arts, and the Metropolitan Association for Performing Arts, all organizations in which Ms. Hill was an active member.

Subject Headings: Where possible, Library of Congress Subject Headings have been used.
