Description: The Hamilton Family records were found on the third floor and provenance has not been determined yet. There are different kinds of records and relationships are also undetermined. There is an autograph book from the 1870s with many entries to Miss Jones, and addressing her as teacher. E.H. Hamilton was a minister in the Presbyterian Church, or perhaps a missionary and there are materials relating to his time, possibly as a missionary, in Taiwan, life insurance papers for Evelyn Harrison Hamilton, tithing records and vaccination records for Mrs. L.O. Huggins and Susie Hamilton. There is a fragile scrapbook full of poems from the late 1800s and Presbyterian mission materials. There is also the bible of E.H. Hamilton. It is unclear at this time if E.H. is Evelyn.

Subject Headings: Where possible, Library of Congress Subject Headings have been used.

Main Entries: Hamilton, E.H.
Hamilton, Evelyn Harrison

Subject/Added Entries: DeKalb County (Ga.)
