Biographical Sketch of Robert Ramspeck: Robert Ramspeck was born on September 5, 1890 in Decatur, GA. He attended school from 1899-1907 but was forced to work his way through school as a janitor at the Donald Fraser School for Boys. In 1907, the clerk of the Superior Court hired him, a position he held until 1911. In 1911, he went to Washington, DC to work for Congressman William Schley Howard. He held several positions for the next fifteen years, including insurance sales and law student at the Atlanta Law School. From 1922 to 1926 Ramspeck was the Solicitor of the City Court. In 1928, he was elected Representative of the Georgia House and in 1929 he assumed the seat in the U.S. House vacated by Congressman Leslie Steele's death after an interesting race involving Hooper Alexander and Colonel Palmer.

Description: The Robert Ramspeck Collection contains one folder of newspaper clippings dealing with the 1929 Congressional race between Robert Ramspeck and Hooper Alexander. The clipping collection is extensive, revealing major issues and arguments by both candidates. The next two folders contain a variety of newspaper clippings from other elections and other miscellaneous topics. The fourth folder contains two issues of the Congressional Record dated December 17, 1945 and December 19, 1945.
