Where was Jesse born?

In 1880, his son Joseph says his father was b in GA; his daughter Elizabeth says b GA also

E-mail reply from Katherine@gte.net (Katherine M Flegal) when I asked her why she thought Jesse Clay b 1792 was the son of Royal Clay:

Hello. The documents I mentioned were those of the estate settlement of Jesse Clay father of Royal Clay. I can give you locations for your search. Royal was in Wilkes Co. GA 1789, 1796 and 1800. 1805 he had a lottery entry in Wilkes Co. He made a deed in Randolph Co. in 1808.

PAGE 11, Deed dated Feb. 8, 1808, recorded May 5, 1808. Jesse Clay of Green Co. to Royal Clay of Randolph County for $400, 202 1/2 acres in Randolph Co. on the waters of Sedan Creek known as lot # 105 in 13th. Dist of Baldwin Co. wit: MICHAEL Wright, J. N. CARGILL, I.I. C..

[From 1807 to 1812 Jasper Co was called Randolph Co, then the name was changed to Jasper Co]

1814 he made a deed in Jasper Co. In 1830 census Dekalb Co. You need to get a marriage record for Jesse Sr. in Henry Co. for his first marriage. This might name his parents. Deeds sometimes show family connections. The message on Gen forum about Jesse Clay who married Su Susannah Tubbs belongs to the family of Samuel Clay and Tabitha Clay.

Good wishes, Helen M. Handley, former vice-president of the Clay Family Association.

Follow-up email from katherine.flegal@gte.net (Katherine M Flegal)

Sorry was looking at record of Royal Clay Jr. He m. his first wife in Henry Co. GA-Nancy Broughton. No, Jesse (wife Marium) mentions his son Royal but does not mention his grandson Jesse Sr. of Dekalb Co. The reason I believe your Jesse Sr. is the son of Royal is that all the descendants I have heard from and have seen in the Clay Family Quarterly believe Jesse Sr. is son of Royal who is son of Jesse and Marium that's why. You will have to get some records to find out more. Try Henry Co. records. This is all I know about this line.
