Johnson, Daniel.

Came to DeKalb from Elbert County in 1824. Served DeKalb County in State legislature and as tax receiver prior to 1850

The first Mrs. Daniel Johnson, who died young, is buried in the Decatur Cemetery. The second Mrs. Johnson, a daughter of Abraham Chandler, is buried in the family cemetery.

Johnson, Elizabeth.

Wife of W.W. Brimmer and a sister of Dr. Daniel N. Johnson.

Note: No interments were made in this cemetery subsequent to the burial of Daniel Johnson in May, 1894.

During the spring of 1937 all recoverable remains in the Johnson Cemetery were reinterred in one grave in the new section of the Decatur Cemetery. The removal was accomplished so as to make way for the further development of the residential section known as Johnson Estates.

The grave in the Decatur Cemetery is marked by a horizontal slab of granite. In some respects the information on the stone is at variance with statements made to the compiler of this record by Dr. Daniel N. Johnson (1851-1944) in 1931. The inscription, copied on Sept. 21, 1957, appears on following page.
