

MAULDIN FAMILY CEMETERY.

Location: A short distance south of Covington Road and west of Snapfinger Creek near the Belmont community. 15th. District, DeKalb County. Evans District.

Recorded Jan. 9, 1932.

This old family cemetery, on a by-road, contains no inscribed markers. It is situated in a thicket, only some five graves being visible. According to John Biffle (interviewed Jan. 9, 1932), an elderly and life-long resident of this section of DeKalb County, some of those buried here are:

Mr. & Mrs. Akins.

Drury Mauldin.
