NORRIS FAMILY CEMETERY
DEKALB CO. GA.

This cemetery is off Brockett Rd in Tucker on a cul-de-sac called Brockett oaks. It is in the front yard of a house on the left side in the front yard in a cluster of trees. In the summer when the ivy is heavy, it can hardly be seen. There are four box tombs with no inscription. Research has shown that three of the tombs belong to the Norris family. The fourth is unknown.

Victoria Norris was murdered in 1877. A Mr. Jolly went to jail for life for the death (he was released early due to ill health and good behavior). A Mr. Weaver was also implicated in the murder. Victoria was buried next to her parents (name unknown).
