ROBERT H. FARRAR

Native of DeKalb County

Graduated - Avondale High School

Degrees - North Georgia College, Georgia State College and Atlanta Law School

Served as Naval Aviator during World War II.

He is engaged in land developing and home building.

Father of three children.

Served on the DeKalb County Local Government Commission

Past President of the Avondale Lions Club, DeKalb Grand Jurors Association and the DeKalb Developers Association.

Has served for three terms in the Georgia House of Representatives.
He is a member of the Appropriations, Education, and Local Affairs (Vice-Chairman) Committees.

He was author of the Bill creating the Georgia Natural Areas Council. This Council is now in the process of preserving natural areas throughout our state for study and enjoyment of this and future generations to come.

His work on the Appropriations and Education Committees has helped our DeKalb School System receive its fair share of State School Fund.

ROBERT H. FARRAR

He was instrumental in getting retirement benefits increased for Georgia School Teachers, and is presently working on a retirement program to cover some 22,000 school employees who are not presently covered by a state retirement program.

He was Author of the Constitutional Resolution which lead to the passage of the "Good Samaritan" Bill which helps promote personal safety and encourages persons to assist our Law Enforcement Officials.
