

Genealogy

MOORE-DUNSEATH; MOORE-COBB; COBB-SCULLY

James Moore (1798-1856) of DeKalb County, Ga. married Anne Dunseath (1803-1892) of Belfast, Ireland. They had six children - four girls and two boys. Their oldest daughter, Margaret Dunseath Moore (1824-1896), married Wm. Tony Cobb (1819-1902) of Abbeville, S.C. They had eight children - seven girls and one boy. Their oldest daughter, Matilda Dunseath Cobb (1845-1901), married Thos. F. Scully (1833-1892) of Somers, Conn. They had five children - Thos. F., Jr. (1872-1898), Mary Claude, Augusta, James W. and Effie (1880-1882).

James Moore and wife, Wm. T. Cobb, wife, seven daughters, nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren, with several uncles, aunts and cousins, are all buried on adjoining lots at Cool Springs Cemetery, just off Boulder Crest Drive in DeKalb County, Ga.

Contributed by Miss Gussie Scully, 624 Holderness St., S.W.
Atlanta, Ga.