

150.

ZACHARIAH GHOLSTON FAMILY CEMETERY.

Location: South side of Covington Road, a short distance south east of Avondale, Land Lot #231, 15th. District, Dekalb County, Decatur District.

Recorded Jan. 9, 1932.

This family cemetery has been sadly desecrated. The old stone box markers have been removed from the graves which are no longer visible, and piled in a heap in a tangle of rusty barbed wire and briars. No inscriptions are visible except one crudely carved stone, reading: N.G. 1843.

Among members of the Gholston family buried here are:

Zachariah Gholston.

Mrs. Zachariah Gholston.

Gilbert C. Gholston.

Note: Since the above was recorded it has been ascertained that Gilbert C. Gholston died at Dalton, Ga., and is buried in the cemetery there. Also, that the Gholston Cemetery, once surrounded by an ornamental iron fence, was vandalized between 1902 and 1910.