

Mrs. Lucy Carter White was born sometime between 1872 - 1875 in Walton County, Ga to Harris and Sarah Carter. In 1893 she married Edward White. Lucy and Edward had 13 children together. Lucy began serving her community as a midwife in the late 1890s. Her husband Edward was a farmer. Around 1930 Lucy and family moved to Dekalb County where she received formal training and was registered with the state of Georgia as a Midwife. She helped to deliver babies throughout Dekalb County from 1930 through around 1951. By 1951 Mrs. Lucy Carter White had delivered hundreds of babies in her 50 plus years as a midwife. She died in 1952 in Grady Memorial Hospital. Her funeral was held at Mt Zion Baptist Church in Decatur and she was buried in Washington Park Memorial Gardens in Scottsdale, Ga.
