Mothers Win, Fathers Lose In Spring Fling

Mothers and daughters competed in volleyball, and fathers and sons formed teams for softball, at Rainbow School's annual Spring Fling and Field Day last Saturday.

The mothers won, 16-14, and the sons defeated fathers, 10-6.

A total of 368 persons took part in the 600-yard race, sack race, basketball-shooting contest, three-legged race, the running broad jump, 50-yard dash and softball throw.

In the tug of war between sections of each class, Mrs. Kitchell's class won for the fourth grade, Mrs. Wooster's class won for the fifth grade, and the class taught by Mrs. Bigger and Norman Martin won for the sixth grade. Mrs. Wilmon and Mrs. Wilson's class won for the seventh grade.

The Spring Fling included a cake walk, animal walk, games, cartoon movies, country store, fish pond and chuck wagon.

Rainbow PTA Honors Departing Principal

Members of the Rainbow PTA honored Dr. William Adams and new officers of the PTA at a reception following a meeting Thursday night.

Dr. Adams is leaving his position as principal of Rainbow school to become assistant superintendent of planning for DeKalb schools.

New officers honored include Mr. and Mrs. L.S. Jamison, co-presidents; Mrs.

Milton Ayash, vice president; Mrs. Robert Taylor, recording secretary; Mrs. Pat Warren, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Robert Burcham, treasurer.

Dr. Phil Wierson, head of the Counseling Center at Georgia State, spoke on the role of the home.

Mrs. Agnes Kamp, who is retiring after a long tenure as a DeKalb county teacher, was recognized at the meeting.
