TMR SCOUT TROOP HONORED AT PTA—Eight trainable mentally retarded boys from Boy Scout Troop 391 at the Robert Shaw Center received their Tenderfoot badges at a special PTA ceremony recently. The troop for TMR boys was chartered Dec. 1971 as a part of the school program at Robert Shaw. Seen with the boys is James Taggart, scout master, who is assisted by Bob Ketchum. The boys (from left) are Mark Hamilton, Ricky Broadnax, Douglas Miller, Fletcher Sterling, Philip Robinson, Ted Brown and Tommy Shockley. (Special Photo)
