Skyhaven School
Students Building
Towers Of Math

Students at Skyhaven Elementary School in southwest DeKalb County marked National Math Month last week by using their mathematical and problem solving skills to build towers using only typing paper and a few paper clips, according to math teacher Ellen Jones. Winning seventh-grade teams, from left to right, were, above, Thamiaka Jones, Tracy Madison, Abrial Lewis and Wyquetta Carr; and right, standing, Bridget Thomas, Michelle Harrell, and Marcus Leonard and Heather Fisher.
