

Mrs. Katherine E. Mann announces her candidacy for re-election as Ordinary and Judge of the Court of Ordinary of DeKalb County, having served in this position for the past eighteen years and as Chief Clerk in the same office a number of years prior to that time. She is married to Lewis F. Mann, and they have one son, Louie.

Judge Mann was born in Savannah, Georgia, educated in the public schools in Albany, Georgia and is a graduate of Freeman's Business College in Albany.

Judge Mann is a member of the Decatur First Methodist Church. She is a member of the DeKalb Historical Society, a charter member of the Decatur Business and Professional Women's Club, honorary member Georgia Association of Women Lawyers, member of Decatur-DeKalb Bar Association, County Officer's Association, member of Legislative Committee of Ordinaries Association, Member of Y. M. C. A. Decatur-DeKalb Branch, and Druid Hills P. T. A.