

Location: Near present Wesley Chapel, DeKalb County,
Georgia. Further details to be added.

Recorded Sept. 26, 1931.

This old cemetery comprises a few graves in a thicket on the side of a road. None of the graves bear inscribed markers.

One grave, distinguished by a rock box, is said to be the resting place of DeKalb pioneer Malcolm McLeod.

#126, 15th District, DeKalb County, Panthersville, District.

This intersection now comprises the roads of Wesley Chapel, Snapfinger, and Rainbow Drive.

This survey is a compilation of the survey by Franklin Garrett, a survey by the Boy Scouts in 1985, and my personal survey.

Notations concerning the families of Gazaway, Haynes, Bird/Byrd, Biffle, and Mitchell are from my research.

SPRAYBERRY

W.H. Sprayberry, son of Bengman Sprayberry was born in N.Car., Feb. 14, 1821. Moved to DeKalb Co. GA in 1825.

Reared on this lot of land. First married Martha Pierce, daughter of Feland Pierce, June 7, 1842. She departed this life

Feb. 17, 1847. I next married M.A. Grant, daughter of James Grant, August 7, 1849. As you pass by me remember that I once lived as well as you. This is to memorate me for all time to come.

Note by Mr. Garrett: Mr. Sprayberry is not buried under the impressive monument, bearing the personally written inscription quoted above. He died from drinking poisoned coffee in 1910 and is buried in an unmarked grave in

Masters

Cemetery some three miles from Wesley Chapel in DeKalb County, near the Henry County line.
