

Spalding Garden Club Is First In The State

DeKalb News/Sun 5/3-190

Members of the Spalding Garden Club of Dunwoody were among the 550 garden club members attending the 62nd annual convention of the Garden Club of Georgia, Inc., at Callaway Gardens, Pine Mountain.

The 12 Spalding club members attending the awards banquet watched their president, Mrs. Peter Lloyd, receive the coveted Garden Club of Georgia Trophy, for achievements that do the most to promote the objectives and projects of the Garden Club of Georgia.

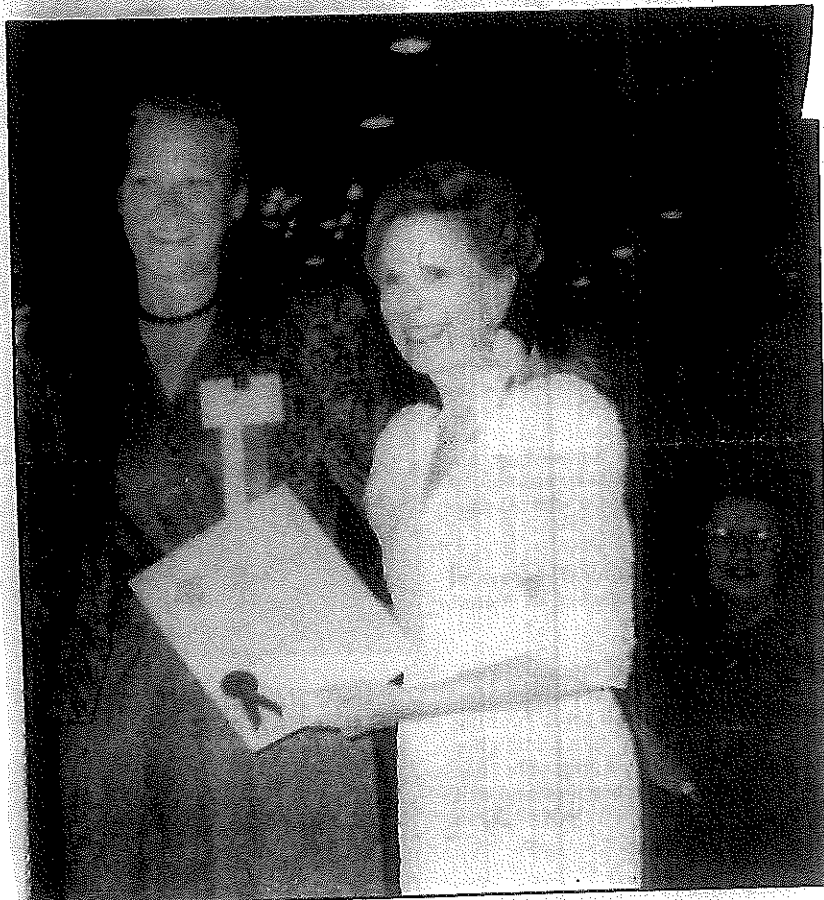

The club also won the Conservation Project Award, Garden Therapy Award, Wildflower Award, Yearbook Award, Flower Show Schedule Award, Scrapbook Award and the overall Scrapbook Award, Publicity Award and the overall Publicity Award as well as the Deep South Regional Award for Publicity, Publications Award for the club newsletter "Clippings,"

School Grounds Improvement Award, Flower Show in Public Building and the Overall Trophy for its Flower Show "The Finishing Touch."

DEEP SOUTH Region Awards were also received for its horticultural projects, Butterfly Conservation, and Publicity Pressbook. The Dogwood District of Garden Clubs also awarded Spalding Garden Club the beautiful Frable dogwood blossom for the most outstanding club in the district.

Mrs. E. Carl White, president of the 18,000 member organization, presided at the business sessions. She encouraged the promotion of Garden Week in Georgia, June 3-9.

Redbud District hosted the convention. Mrs. William H. Stuart of Atlanta is Redbud District Director. Mrs. R. Neal Manners of Atlanta served as convention chairman and Mrs. H. Louis Lester of LaGrange as co-chairman.

Happy Occasion For Spalding Club

Spalding President Donna Lloyd, left, pictured with State President, Peggy White

Debbie Harrison
Spalding Club Donates Tree

1-15-92

Louise Aldridge, Sylvia Dewberry and Marion Whitmore are pictured by the tree that Spalding Garden Club members decorated for Atlanta Hospital Hospitality House.