Biographical Sketch of Briarcliff High School: Briarcliff High School opened its doors in 1958 to relieve crowding experienced by neighboring Druid Hills High School. The school colors were silver and blue and its mascot was the Baron. Briarcliff's first students were 8th and 9th graders only. The first class graduated in 1962. The school closed at the end of the 1986-1987 school year due to population changes, with students transferred to Druid Hills High School.

Description: The Briarcliff High School collection is composed primarily of yearbooks, including other school memorabilia, such as news articles featuring Briarcliff High School or its students and staff, beauty pageant programs, photos, and other related items.

Subject Headings: Where possible, Library of Congress Subject Headings have been used.

Main Entry: Briarcliff High School
