Biographical Sketch of Vivian Price Saffold: Vivian Price Saffold is a lifelong resident of DeKalb County. She was a reporter for the Decatur/DeKalb newspaper and an author. She researched history and genealogy for private clients.

Description: The Vivian Price Saffold Collection is composed of book notes, book drafts, photos, photos on disk and tape, newspapers, and other ephemera. The collection also includes the tote bag that Ms Price used to carry her items. Much of the collection included copies of news articles and other ephemera which were made from the DeKalb History Center collection. These copies were absorbed into existing subject files. All original notes, drafts, and photos were otherwise kept in original order within the collection. Many photos come from Decatur/DeKalb News and Stone Mountain Park Memorial Association.

Subject Headings: Where possible, Library of Congress Subject Headings have been used.
