Size: 18 boxes of scrapbooks, 2 document boxes

Brief Organizational History of Tau Pi Omega (from their website):

“The mission of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated ® is to cultivate and encourage high scholastic and ethical standards, to promote unity and friendship among college women, to study and help alleviate problems concerning girls and women in order to improve their social stature, to maintain a progressive interest in college life, and to be of ‘Service to All Mankind.’

Tau Pi Omega supports this mission through our international service initiatives on a local level by continuing to strive for excellence. Our overall mission will be achieved through the following diverse and collaborative efforts: spirituality, sisterhood, leadership, scholarship, cultural awareness, and the implementation of our programs throughout our community.” The chapter serves communities in Lithonia, Stone Mountain, and Stonecrest.

Description: Photos (some with negatives) were mostly housed in paper bags (from photo processing shop), some with descriptions, others without descriptions. Others were loose in boxes or bound with rubber bands. Folder titles were taken from descriptions on paper bags; otherwise, they were given “unidentified” titles.

Subject Headings: Where possible, Library of Congress Subject Headings have been used.

Main entries: Alpha Kappa Alpha, Tau Pi Omega
