c/o Pastor J.M. Hunt, Jr.

Tucker, GA 30084

Dear Pastor Hunt;

I've just completed a survey of the cemetery at your Church location and have enclosed a copy of my field notes for your use.

I grew up in Tucker in the 1950s & 60s, graduated from Tucker High School in 1961 and was next-door neighbors to Troy & Velma Adams who are buried there. I know that this cemetery has never been surveyed or published and am interested in preserving the grave marker records of all these early settlers of Tucker.

I hope there is a person in the Church who could work on this to add names of some of those buried in the "U" (Unmarked) graves. Perhaps there is a "Cemetery Committee" or other group within the Church who care for such things?

For example, on page 17 are 3 "U" markers which have flowers there when I made the survey, so I'm certain someone knows who these are buried here. Others in the Church may know the identity of some of the other "U" markers, as well.

On page 41 you will note there is one marker lying in the woods which has been somehow removed from it's proper location. Does someone know where it should be?

I would appreciate someone sending me copies of any corrected pages they may be able to make. If someone there has a computer, it would be very helpful for you folks to alphabetize all these names to make it easy to identify those buried there.

I hope you will find this helpful. It is obvious that this cemetery has been well cared for over the years; it is my pleasure to provide this.

Sincerely,

Ted Brooke

January 14, 1995

Dear Carolyn,

Enclosed is a copy of a recent cemetery survey done by Ted Brooke. It concerns the Fellowship Primitive Baptist Church on Fellowship Road, Tucker, Georgia. As far as he could determine, Mr. Barrett had not surveyed this cemetery.

This is not the same cemetery as the Old Fellowship Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery between Wildwood Lane and Pine Valley Road.

I believe this will be a useful addition to the file of cemetery records at DeKalb Historical Society's archives. On behalf of Ted Brooke and myself, thank you for accepting this record.

Sincerely,

Delia Dilliland

In a quaint, wooded cemetery behind the American Legion post of Tucker, repose the remains of Sgt. Daniel Fones, a member of the First Rhode Island Regiment who fought bravely in the Revolutionary War.

Records from the National Archives and the Records Service in Washington, D.C., indicate that Daniel Fones enlisted in the First Rhode Island Regiment April 5, 1777, and served to the end of the war, being promoted from private to corporal to sergeant. As a private he was paid two British pounds a month; as a sergeant he earned ten American dollars a month.

How Sgt. Fones came to be buried in this area is unknown. In the EAGLE dated September, 1964, it was reported that the monument presently marking the grave was shipped from Washington, D.C., in 1914. Mr. Emmsy Thomas, a long-time Tucker resident, hauled the heavy stone monument from the Tucker depot to the cemetery in a wagon.

The Bicentennial celebration has created new interest in Sgt. Fones' history and several groups are now trying to assemble facts about his life. Watch the EAGLE during the coming months for more details as they are discovered.
