Manuel Maloof Image Collection (1980-1992)

Scope and Content: This collection contains photographs, negatives and slides of/from Manuel Maloof (1924-2004) executing his duties as Chief Executive Officer and Commission Chairman of DeKalb County, Georgia. The bulk of the collection is identified photographs with corresponding negatives. Succeeding series include: negative transfers; unidentified photographs; identified negatives without photographs; unidentified negatives without photographs; and slides. There are digital scans of the identified negatives without photographs. An index to the scan images and the negatives is at the end of this finding aid. There are digital images of some of the unidentified negatives without photographs but there is no index. The digital images for both series are available by request.

The photograph and negative transfer series are arranged in alphabetical order by event name/title. The identified negatives without photographs series is arranged in no discernable order but were left in numerical order by the digital scan numbers.

Provenance: Donated by Kiji Berston, DeKalb County Government. Accession # 2008.1

Access: Single photocopies may be made for research purposes. Permission to publish materials from this collection must be requested from the archivist, DeKalb History Center. Citation should be as follows: DeKalb History Center.

Biographical Sketch of Manuel Maloof: Manuel Maloof was born in Atlanta in 1924 to Gibran and Lillian Maloof. He graduated from Tech High School and went on to serve in WWII as an Army Air Force mechanic and mess sergeant. His military career took him to England where he met his future wife, Dolly Green. In 1956, he opened Manuel's Tavern, a popular dining establishment in Atlanta that has served the likes of Bill Clinton and Thomas J.J. Altizer. Maloof's political career began in 1974 when he was elected county commissioner. In 1980, he defeated Walt Russell to become commission chairman and in 1984, he was elected CEO; he held this position until December 1992.

Subject Headings: Where possible, Library of Congress Subject Headings have been used.

Main Entry: Maloof, Manuel (1924-2004)
