

Eli Blackshear

Eli Blackshear is a multi-instrumentalist, singer-songwriter who lives here in Decatur, GA. Originally from Manitou Spring, CO, Eli has been working professionally in music since he was just a kid, working as a concert pianist before moving on to folk, blues, and rock 'n roll in his teen years. He has played across the country at venues such as Red Rocks Amphitheatre, The Whiskey A-Go-Go, Checkpoint Charlie's, and everything in-between. His soulful take on folk music and blues is both reminiscent of an older, golden age of music, with a fresh perspective crafting a truly unique sound. Eli is also very passionate about activism and the pursuit of social change through protest and music, and his songs reflect these beliefs in a clear and authentic way that will make any listener feel both related to and hopeful for the future. Book Eli Blackshear for your next event or concert to bring an elevated experience to any coffee shop, bar, restaurant, theatre, or stadium.
