Organizational Sketch of City Schools of Decatur: City Schools of Decatur is an independent school district within a four-square mile area of downtown Decatur, Georgia. The system prides itself on the eclectic atmosphere of a small town, metropolitan area, and a college town. Their website states their mission is to “challenge every student to succeed by providing a rigorous, engaging, and authentic learning experience delivered by highly qualified, caring adults in safe and inviting schools.” The system began in 1902 with E.E. Treadwell as superintendent. There were only eight grades until 1912. In 1913 Glennwood School was built and the high school occupied the top story and the elementary school was on the first story and in the basement.
